
Privacy policy pursuant to EU Regulation 679/2016 regarding the processing of personal data

With reference to the personal data acquired or handed over during the surveillance activities of the Chamber of Commerce of Milan Monza Brianza Lodi, the following information, pursuant to Articles 13 and 14 of EU Regulation 679/2016, is provided-

1. Data Controller and Data Officer

The Data Controller is the Chamber of Commerce of Milan Monza Brianza Lodi – via Meravigli 9/B, 20123 – Milan (MI) <http://www.milomb.camcom.it> – cciaa@pec.milomb.camcom.it.

The Data Protection External Officer is Infocamere S.C.p.A., - Via G.B. Morgagni 13, Rome (RM). Pursuant to art. 37 of EU Regulation 679/2016, the Chamber has appointed the Data Protection Officer, contactable at RPD@mi.camcom.ita –

2. Purposes and legal basis of data processing

The personal data handed over or acquired during surveillance activity are processed in order to exercise the control powers conferred to the Data Controller by the regulations in force and to manage procedures for detecting and notifying of possible breaches, as well as enforcing the relevant sanctions. Pursuant to art. 6 letter e) of the GDPR, the legal basis of the data processing is the exercise of public authority conferred to the Data Controller by Law 689/81 and 241/90, concerning administrative procedures, and by the sectoral legislation.

3. Processing of data relating to criminal convictions and offences

Please note that, with regard to the activities covered by this privacy policy, the Data Controller may find it necessary to process data relating to criminal convictions and offences. Such data processing is carried out in compliance with the provisions of art. 10 of GDPR and art. 2-octies of Legislative Decree 196/2003.

4. Data processing methods

The collected personal data are processed by personnel authorized in paper and/or electronic form. Data processing is carried out via recording, archiving, and/or digital procedures, in such a way that security and privacy must be granted.

5. Data provision

In order to correctly perform the legal procedures concerning the Chamber of Commerce's surveillance activity, it is mandatory to provide the relevant data. Besides, such procedures entail the processing of the data extracted from registers and databases held by the Chamber of Commerce.

6. Data dissemination and communication

The collected/provided data are processed for the sole purposes referred to in the above paragraph 2. Only the personnel authorized by the Data Controller, or by the Data Protection Officers appointed by the latter, can process such data. Personal data may be communicated to other authorities and/or entities involved in the surveillance procedures, as well as to those who are competent to perform sanctioning procedures and operate as autonomous Data Controllers.

7. Data retention

The data provided will be processed for the period strictly required to pursue the aforesaid purposes and will be kept as long as necessary, with regard to the legal obligations, regulatory provisions or other requirements related to the proper management of the procedure.

8. Rights of the data subject and how to protect them

Without prejudice to the circumstances that justify the restrictions referred to in art. 23 of GDPR, data subjects are guaranteed the exercise of the rights provided by art. 15 et seq. of EU Regulation 679/2016 and the relevant legislation in force. In particular, data subjects are granted the right to access their personal data, to request data rectification, updating or deleting if such data are incomplete, erroneous or collected in violation of the law. Data subjects can also object to data processing, make data anonymous or limit their processing. These rights can be exercised in compliance with the exceptions provided by the sectoral legislation and with the rules established by a specific Regulation, which specifies how and on what basis it is possible to put such rights in action. The Regulation, and the relevant forms, can be found at <https://www.milomb.camcom.it/regolamenti>.

Data subjects can also file a complaint to the Italian Data Protection Authority, following the relevant procedures. Data subjects undertake to communicate the content of this privacy policy to the parties interested in the personal data that have been indicated when filling out the declaration.
